His Last Hope Realized.

In the first opening of Okiahoma to settiers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, be encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so had he expected to die. One day one of his nelghbors brought him one small hotile of Chamberiam's Colic, Choiera and Dlarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him white he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few and Mr. John Thomas Underwood effect of the medicine was soon noticed B. Jones officiating. and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grate ful. ALTHOUGH a bung jury in the case of Curtie Jett for killing J. B. Marcum at Jackson was what a great many expected, it was not generally believed that one juror would thwart justice as was done. Eleven good men and true believed Jett gulity of murder but the knew more than all the rest and held postmaster at Celeste, Casey county, out for an acquittal. After 24 hours' wranging with the case Judge Redwine finally discharged the jury and ordered Jett and White taken to Lex Ington for safe-keeping. A change of venue to Harrison county was granted and it is hoped that in a few weeks they will again be on trial for their lives and that in this case there will be no Flizpatricks on the jury, but instead men who will do their duty as jurore.
